Gen People are always telling us that our dark beers don't get the recognition they deserve... well, let's start with this one! Our latest brew uses Sorachi Ace hops and chocolate malt to create a right old mouthful of contrasting yet enticing flavours; bitter chocolate, cocoa, roasted grain, pineapple, coconut... you name it, it's probably in there somewhere! We aim to prove that Porter doesn't have to be a sweet, caramelly mess but can be complex, hoppy and interesting instead!

We know what hops are for...

Darkthroner

Sorachi Porter

This dark and bitter porter has a complex flavour with chocolate, coffee and a fruity hop character proving Porter need not be bland... well, not the way we brew it!
